Leisure Lines from the Director of Parks and Recreation...

Sometimes the stars just align. Right? Well we needed that to happen last fall and winter for the Department of Parks and Recreation to be able to break ground on a new recreation center in July and move in by January. With the help of our builder Gallina Development, Real Estate advisor and Victor resident Vince Pettrone, and through the efforts of Department staff and the leadership of the Victor Town Board (and a little boost from “Mother Nature” with an unusually warm and dry November and December), we got it done! From a professional perspective, it was especially nice for me to bring a long term goal of the Parks and Recreation Citizens’ Advisory Committee and our residents to a reality. Onwards and upwards was our slogan throughout this process!

Inside the cover of this seasonal brochure, you will discover information about our New York State Certified Day Camp for preschoolers to 8th grade children. This summer our diverse camp line-up features specialty and sports camps for kids interested in dance, theater, soccer, cooking, science and nature. Our annual Sid Partington Memorial Concert series at the Victor Municipal Park Bandshell will showcase the musical stylings of the world renowned Rochester Metropolitan Jazz Orchestra and local favorite “Double Shot” to name a couple of our entertainers. Concert goers will be able to grab a bite to eat from area food trucks including “Roc City Sammitch” and “The Meatball Truck.”

On Memorial Day – Monday, May 30th at 2:00 pm, we will dedicate a new flagpole and garden at Dryer Road Park in memory of Alex Davis. Alex, who enjoyed spending time at the park as a lacrosse player and mountain biking on the trails with his brother KJ, passed away in (2014). Alex’s parents Bob and Debbie have been a longtime advocates for parks and recreation services in Victor and Bob served on our Parks and Recreation Citizens’ Advisory Committee and Planning Board. We hope that you will join us and the James Cooke American Legion Post for this special occasion and also consider joining us for our annual Memorial Day Parade that morning!

This spring, we hope that you see ALL of your daffodils BLOOM and that your summer is filled with ADVENTURES in RECREATION!

All the Best,
Brian C. Emelson, CPRE • Director of Parks and Recreation
